Dr Stewart Eyres, FRAS, MInstP, MIAU, FHEA: Skills summary

- Developing a strategy and associated operational requirements to develop learning, teaching and assessment in the Faculty.
- Planning for staff development and succession, including mentoring, providing opportunities to gain experience and aligning staff aspirations to School priorities.
- Academic Leadership of the School, including establishing key priorities, School identity and gaining support from staff.
- Management of staff and operations budgets, including change management.
- Rapid assimilation of scientific and technical information.
- Accurate and rigorous scientific writing.
- Oral and written presentation of results and resource proposals.
- Document preparation, web authoring, graphic design. Use of WebCT.
- Data reduction, handling & analysis.
- Computer programming.
- Supervision, teaching and training of school, undergraduate, and postgraduate students, the public, and fellow staff.
- Experience in international collaborative projects.
- Organization and execution of independent work.
- Planning and execution of scientific and observational projects.
- Team working.
- Quick acquisition of new skills.
- Media relations

URL http://www.star.uclan.ac.uk/∼spse/

Wed Dec 30 10:11:18 2020